

- 1) LCSH subdivisions come in four types. Find an example of each type in the set of red books behind the reference desk (Library of Congress Subject Headings), copy down the ENTIRE subject heading entry, and underline the subdivision type.

Topical:

Form:

Chronological:

Geographic:

- 2) I hope you're getting closer to the topic for your paper. Briefly describe (two sentences) what you are/might be interested in researching:

- 3) Look up that topic in the red books. Find and note below three relevant headings and the page #:

Heading: _____ Page # _____

Heading: _____ Page # _____

Heading: _____ Page # _____

- 4) Check this box when you have established an interlibrary loan account: ☐

- 5) Now search the Beta Library Catalog for books on your topic. Keep track of good subject headings (and subdivisions) below as you search. Select three potentially useful resources and cite them on the flip side of this page. At least one must be primary.

Good Subject Headings/Subdivision:

First source:

Title: _____

Author/Editor: _____

Publisher: _____

Location: _____

Date: _____

Other significant information:

Is this source:	Primary	Secondary
Do we own it?	Yes	No
If not, it is owned by:	"Quick Delivery Libraries"	"Worldwide Libraries"

Second source:

Title: _____

Author/Editor: _____

Publisher: _____

Location: _____

Date: _____

Other significant information:

Is this source:	Primary	Secondary
Do we own it?	Yes	No
If not, it is owned by:	"Quick Delivery Libraries"	"Worldwide Libraries"

Third source:

Title: _____

Author/Editor: _____

Publisher: _____

Location: _____

Date: _____

Other significant information:

Is this source:	Primary	Secondary
Do we own it?	Yes	No
If not, it is owned by:	"Quick Delivery Libraries"	"Worldwide Libraries"