

ANTH161/LNGS161

Dr. Johnson-Weiner

Nancy Alzo
Crumb Library
alzona@potdam.edu
February 9, 2010

Where do you most frequently work on a computer?

- A. In Crumb or Crane Library
- B. In another lab on campus
- C. In the dorms
- D. Off-campus
- E. Bring my own laptop with me

What is your preferred Internet Browser?

- A. Internet Explorer
- B. Mozilla's Firefox
- C. Safari
- D. Other

What is your preferred Search Engine?

A. Google

B. Bing

C. Other

What phrase best describes you?

- A. I use every kind of technology available – very adaptable to whatever you give me.
- B. Facebook changed their format AGAIN last night and I hate change!
- C. When I need to do research, I just Google – everything is on the web!
- D. I hate computers – I only use them because I have to.

Find Books

- BearCat – College Libraries' catalog
- WorldCat – comprehensive catalog including local holdings and a link to Interlibrary Loan
- Search topically by keyword or by subject
  - Use keyword search results to identify appropriate subject search
  - use “ ” or () for phrase searching

Find Articles

- “Start by Subject” to identify an appropriate database.
- Academic Search Complete
  - Database and Search Interface provided by EbscoHost (“Ebsco”) includes “features”:
    - ability to narrow results by adding (ANDING) additional subject terms
    - Date limiters
    - Choosing results from “Academic Journals” or “Magazines”
    - Abstracts!!

Moving from the citation to the text

- Databases may include full-text for the indexed citation
- “Article Linker” connects database citations to any available full-text or to Interlibrary loan option

Citing your sources

- WorldCat and most article databases offer an option to “cite this source” in a variety of styles. <cut and paste>
- Most publishers of style guides offer “free” information on their web sites
- Purdue University “OWL” - <http://owl.english.purdue.edu/>
- College Writing Center in Carson
- “Ask a Librarian”